

A Room Full of Chocolate

***Winner of Peters Book of the Year 2015 and the Leeds Book Award.*** Grace's fun-loving Mum has found a lump. Her north London world of sleepovers, tap dancing and playing the clarinet fall apart when she is sent to live with her grumpy old granddad on his farm in Yorkshire while her mother goes into hospital to get better. Grace misses her mother so much it hurts, and doesn't quite understand what is happening to her. And things go from bad to worse when she starts school and becomes the bullies' latest target. But Grace is no longer alone when she meets Rainbow Girl Megan and her pig, Claude - when she's with them she feels as if she can confront anything. At Easter time when Grace misses her mum the most, she knows she must find a way to get to London. With Megan's help, she hatches a plan to run away that involves Claude, chocolate Easter eggs and a risky ID swap. But it's all worth it if it means that she finally gets to see her mum ... A gorgeous story of courage and friendship that will tug at your heart strings. A touching, beautifully imagined debut about a young girl coping with her mother's cancer and her grandfather's stubbornness. Its atmosphere reminds me of the central relationship in Goodnight Mr Tom. Amanda Craig At times, desperately moving, and others riotously fun, this is a special book that is destined to charm readers old and young. We Love This Book This is a lovely tale of friendship, tenacity and family secrets. The Bookseller
