

Jesu Solo

I call myself a gospeller because when it comes to Christianity the gospel is all I really care about. I was raised Catholic and have lived the majority of my adult life in the Bible Belt, as a result I have witnessed firsthand how far both the Catholic and Protestant traditions have strayed away from Jesus and his simple message of unconditional love. That is why I have written this short book, following in the footsteps of Martin Luther. It is an explanation and justification of the personal revelation that saved my faith: Jesu Solo. I've also included all I believe one needs to be a Christian, the purest possible version of the Gospel of Matthew. In conclusion, I pray that this work touches others as it has touched me and thank God for giving us Jesus, a worthy example to follow for those of us who want to make the world a better place, for us and for our children.
