Edmund Rice (1594 3 May 1663), was an early immigrant to Massachusetts Bay Colony born in Suffolk, England. He lived in Stanstead, Suffolk and Berkhamsted, Hertfordshire before sailing with his family to America. He landed in the Massachusetts Bay Colony in summer or fall of 1638, thought to be first living in the town of Watertown, Massachusetts. Shortly thereafter he was a founder of Sudbury in 1638, and later in life, was one of the thirteen petitioners for the founding of Marlborough in 1656. He was a Deacon in the Puritan Church, and served in town politics as a selectman and judge. He also served five years as a member of the Great and General Court, the combined colonial legislature and judicial court of Massachusetts.. This book of New England genealogy covers the main facts regarding the Deacon, his children and grand-children, with their dates and records. Almost any one of the present generation will be able to connect by tracing backwards, for surely any of us can tell who were our great-grand parents. There is an immense and ever increasing number of german Rice families in the U. S., and more are on the way. I am informed, in a hectic letter from an aspiring german Rice, that there is one entire Township of Rices, in Switzerland. May the Lord preserve them, in Switzerland. Among the descendants of Deacon Edmund Rice I have found almost every famous New England name. The families of many of our Methodist and Episcopal Bishops, of poets, authors, statesmen, clergymen, inventors, financiers, actors, musicians and politicians are descended from Deacon Edmund or some of his family. This book originally published in 1911 has been reformatted for the Kindle and may contain an occasional defect from the original publication or from the reformatting.
