

Talking with the Master: I am a Watchman

Van Butler, Jr. shares of his inspiration to become a pastor, and how he failed, relaying his love of God. Through examining themes of sin, using the book of Genesis as a primal resource, he explores why and how it is easy for man to sin. He answers questions from his personal spiritual growth, connecting biblical themes together to illustrate these points. For example, he focuses on topics such as: Motives for Sin Casting Your Pains and Sorrows to God How God Can Redeem You of Your Sins Strengthening Your Faith to Attain Healing and Peace How Sorrow and Frustration Can Bring Blessings Inspirational Songs and Poems to Honor God Van Butler pulls from a variety of ideas and his personal stories of spiritual growth to give the reading dimension, allowing you to connect with his story. The trumpet has already sounded; let God be the guide in your darkness and accept His perfect love and peace.
