

Where Do We Go From Here?

Who has ever achieved anything of any significance without determination, seriousness of purpose and disciplined practice. What authority do we need but clarity of vision and the fullness of our spiritual heart and soul yearning. This is the journey we embark on to embrace spirit in every area of our life. And relocate the environment of our conscious awareness and soul being. What we seek is a fullness of being we generally have not ever achieved. This is the supreme deed of which we are capable. Enlightenment is the bouquet of life. The ascent to higher states of being and conscious awareness. The end result and jumping off place of the human experience into other, more advanced dimensions of being.
