

Fritz Auf Ferien: Edited with Introduction and Notes (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Fritz Auf Ferien: Edited With Introduction and Notes The name of the author, Babette von Bulow (hans Arnold), figures prominently in German magazines; and many a volume of her short stories has been received with unstinted praise and admiration by both the critic and the general reader. Fritz auf Ferien will not only stimulate curiosity, but will help teach colloquial German, a feature of the language so frequently overlooked in the class-room. We feel, therefore, we are supplying a real want. The teacher need not be told of the importance of the study of colloquial German, since it is colloquial German, students must use and understand when coming in contact with Germans.
