

Who Ive Become: Is Not Who I Am (Taking off the Mask)

Have you ever said that you were all right when you weren't, or when asked how you are feeling responded with an, I'm fine when you knew you were emotionally on the edge? If this describes you, keep reading; this book may change the way you see yourself. In fact, it may change your life. Wearing a mask is something too many people do for a variety of reasons. We all have fallen short of the glory of God, yet we've all worn a mask at one time or another to cover up our frailties. The danger comes when you, the true person, can no longer be seen. Instead, what people actually see is the role that you have become, which is not your genuine self. Who Ive Become is NOT Who I AM! is more than a testimonial; it is a mirror of truth.
