

The Ins and Outs of Grade Four

Knowing the ins and outs in Ms. Devons grade four class is key to a fun-filled and drama free year. Shes not the most interesting teacher. In fact, she is so boring and strict that she could put the most hyperactive boy to sleep. Thankfully Emma Bella has her BFF, Marianne Grande, to help keep things interesting. Their year in grade four has them feeling like they are taking a crash course on the workings of the young, male brain. The incessant teasing, long stares, and farting would drive most girls over the bend but not Emma and Marianne. They prove that they are not easily intimidated and are up for any challenge, especially when theyre up against the boys. Her motto: never allow your opponent to smell weakness or fear and never go down without a fight. In her pursuit to get the last laugh and to beat the boys at their own game, Emma develops a crush on popular, blue-eyed Ricky. Does he feel the same way or is he is interested in Denise, the most popular girl in the grade? Denises group of friends arent thrilled about the attention that Emma receives from Ricky and his friends. In their eyes Emma does not meet their standards; she doesnt wear the latest trends and she still likes to play games at recess. Emma ignores these girls for the most part and tries to focus on having fun with her own group of friends who she feels are down to earth and more genuine people. Shes not about to pretend to be something that shes not in order to gain popularity and Rickys affection. She does though appreciate his friendship and has a lot of fun with him and his gang. What is she to do if anything at all?
