

Uncle Wiggily in the Woods

Uncle Wiggily, an engaging elderly rabbit, is lame from rheumatism. Wherever he goes, he always relies on a red, white, and blue crutch?described as being striped like a barber-pole, or, in later episodes, his candy-striped walking cane, with spiral red and white striping like a peppermint candy stick. Brother, says the hump-tailed gator, wouldnt you like a nice rabbit? Indeed I would, answers the double-jointed tail gator, who can wobble his flippers both ways. And I know of no nicer rabbit than Uncle Wiggily Longears! As it so happens, Uncle Wiggily has just planned his vacation. He and Nurse Jane Fuzzy-Wuzzy will leave the countryside and take a nice little bungalow in the woods. And the woods is where these two skillery-scalery alligators live -- who are not exactly friends of the bunny uncle! But the cheerful rabbit gentleman knows plenty of friendlier creatures, too -- whom readers young and old will delight in meeting, in Uncle Wiggily in the Woods.
