

Wills and Inventories, Vol. 26: From the Registry of the Archdeaconry of Richmond, Extending Over Portions of the Countries of York, Westmerland, Cumberland, and Lancaster (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Wills and Inventories, Vol. 26: From the Registry of the Archdeaconry of Richmond, Extending Over Portions of the Countries of York, Westmerland, Cumberland, and Lancaster. The Council of the Surtees Society, in publishing a third volume of Wills and Inventories, venture to hope that the present addition to the most popular of their publications will meet with the same welcome which was so generally accorded to its predecessors. A new and untrodden district, rich in natural and artificial beauty, has been here traversed. A new mine has been opened, and if out of this hitherto unexplored treasure-house any gem has been drawn forth, which by its freshness or its brilliancy has lit up some dark spot in local or general history, or has darted its vivifying rays along the lifeless and faded lineaments of some ancient rite or custom, the object of the Society has been well attained. The subject of testamentary records presents a field of research from which the genealogist and the ecclesiastical antiquary may gather a rich and abundant harvest. The historian may find beneath its virgin soil the materials for the erection of a noble edifice. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
